

5 Sailfish Way Kingscliff NSW

Located in the heart of Seaside Estate just a stroll to the beach and within an easy reach to all the stunning Tweed Coast has to offer this brand new master built home offers the perfect combination of quality, luxury and space.

Cleverly designed by Koda Designs and constructed by award winning boutique builder Lindon Homes this contemporary family home was purpose built to take full advantage of aspect, light and available building footprint.

Spread over two levels this home offers space in all the places that would make a family feel both comfortable and organised. The centrepiece of the home is the open plan living and kitchen boasting a large butlers pantry, an oversized SMEG oven / gas cooktop and stone benchtops. The raised ceilings and abundance of high windows create a feeling of space and light and the area opens seamlessly out to a large undercover entertainment area and perfect sized yard for the kids to play. Also located downstairs is a media room, guest bedroom and bathroom giving visitors or extra live in family members their own privacy and space.
