This fully renovated beachside home is simply stunning and offers a new family the opportunity of a lifetime to take up immediate residence.

Located beachside in Salt Village so close to the cafes, restaurants, Salt Central Park, bike paths and the pristine Salt Beach.

Built in 2005 the original owners have spared no expense in crafting new bathrooms, new timber floors, new carpets, along with new kitchen components and painted internal and external. The fittings are new, modern and tasteful.

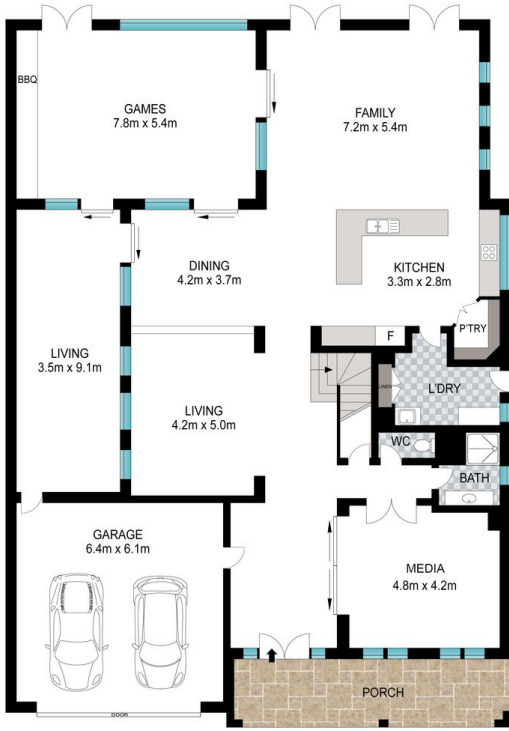

The moment you stroll into the wide entry the presence of space and décor is all consuming. There are 4 living options including separate media room that could easily convert to a fifth bedroom or office study. The open plan kitchen is centrally located as entertainment headquarters feeding out to the family area, dining and a games room with kitchenette. Ducted air conditioning is present throughout the entire home.

A fully enclosed courtyard alfresco precinct offers side
