Wonderful in every way, this stunning home is a prime example of a quality build combined with a carefully thought out floor plan that is both spacious and functional suiting the needs of many different family dynamics.

The kitchen, dining and living areas flow out to a private undercover entertaining area and beautiful in-ground saltwater pool complete with water feature.

Perfect in size the kitchen offers great space with plenty of storage, huge butlers pantry, stone benchtops, a generous island bench, oversized oven with gas cooktop and soft pendant lighting adding depth and atmosphere. A good sized study/5th bedroom and bathroom is located near the front door offering great space if you work from home, have regular guests or an extended family member living with you.

Located upstairs the master bedroom incorporates a large, beautifully appointed walk in robe and generous ensuite. A third living room enables family members to spread out. Three further bedrooms are of good proportion offering the perfect space for each family member.
