

14 Drift Court Kingscliff NSW

3 1 1

Just in time for the summer months! This stylish beach house has been meticulously planned and designed to truly embrace the slower life we've all been craving.

This home has a true nostalgic beach house feel with a nod to the mid-century via bespoke finishes evident throughout.

The bedrooms and living space are generous with high ceilings and the bathroom and kitchen are spacious, well laid out and instagram worthy! So much light spills gently through this single level home designed with maximum crossflow to eliminate the need for air conditioning. The current owners live with the doors wide open most of the year whilst enjoying the comfort of their wood burning fireplace in the cosier months.

Positioned centrally on the block allowing seamless access to the mature cultivated yard including outdoor entertaining spaces on both sides of the expansive living room, low maintenance native landscaping, green space for kids and pets, fully established kitchen garden along with the cutest matching outhouses including utilities shed, chicken coop and additional storage/working shed/office space.
