Architecture meets art with this boldly modern Jayson Pate designed masterpiece.

Positioned within a sought-after coastal enclave, across the road from Kingscliff/Casuarina Beach, this show-stopper proudly stands out from the crowd. A unique expression of style and substance, timber floors bring warmth to its contemporary interiors, while the open plan kitchen, living and dining zone ooze sophistication as the central social hub.

Relax here or grab a bottle of your favourite vintage from the glass-faced wine cellar and retreat onto the alfresco terrace. A secluded oasis with built-in BBQ and bar, tranquil water feature and pool - the perfect spot to entertain guests.

Enticingly, the home comes with potential Airbnb accommodation, comprising of a king-sized bedroom, bathroom with large walk-in shower, lounge, kitchenette and garden.

Upstairs, the remaining three bedrooms and two bathrooms
