Escape to your coastal hinterland retreat - Resting on 17 Acres, Gazing Over Tweed Valley and Mt. Warning.

Pass through the secure electric gate and find a spacious cleared house site, a converted shed now as living quarters, and a cozy studio. Towering gum trees and native flora create a picturesque setting, bathed in sunlight thanks to the northwest exposure.

This is your canvas, ready for your creative touch. A flat building pad awaits your design ideas, or enjoy the existing setup as a weekend retreat, large enough for extended family visits.

Two structures stand out: a converted concrete building serving as a temporary home and a new workshop with a full bathroom.

Explore established forest trails and open areas perfect for your permaculture haven.
